

Immerse Yourself in a Fun Sports Weekend–
Golf, Football, Soccer, and More

ARTICLE BY SUSAN LANIER-GRAHAM
PHOTOGRAPHY BY VISIT FRISCO

Ultimate Sports Weekend in Frisco, Texas

If you're looking for a great sports escape, Frisco, Texas (VisitFrisco.com) offers the perfect play-cation. Here are our suggestions for the best weekend getaway.

WHERE IS FRISCO?

Frisco is part of the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex, so you can fly into either DFW or Love Field and grab a ride share for the 30-minute ride to Frisco. We recommend booking a stay at the Omni PGA Frisco Resort or Hyatt Regency Frisco.

SHARPEN YOUR GOLF SKILLS

Golf aficionados should check out the PGA of America Headquarters (PGA.com). Book a session at the Coaching Center, which offers expert coaches and top-of-the-line facilities to enhance your game and technique. Whether you want to improve your golf swing or perfect your putting, the Coaching Center offers personalized instruction tailored to your needs.

NATIONAL SOCCER HALL OF FAME

You can immerse yourself in soccer's history and legacy at the National Soccer Hall of Fame (NationalSoccerHOF.com). Explore interactive exhibits, memorabilia, and artifacts that highlight the passion and excitement of the game. Whether you're a die-hard fan or a casual observer, the National Soccer Hall of Fame offers a unique and engaging experience celebrating everything soccer.

TOUR THE DALLAS COWBOYS WORLD HEADQUARTERS

Continue your sports journey by taking a guided tour of the Dallas Cowboys World Headquarters and experiencing The Star (TheStarinFrisco.com).

Step inside the state-of-the-art facilities where the Dallas Cowboys practice and prepare for game day. From the Ford Center at The Star, where high school athletes compete on the same turf as the pros, to the interactive Jerry Jones Experience, immerse yourself in the Cowboys' storied tradition and star-studded legacy. You'll see the actual Super Bowl trophies and diamond-studded rings. After your tour, head to one of the many restaurants on the 91-acre campus to toast your sports-themed play-cation.